

Dear colleagues and friends of written heritage,

We invite you to an international scientific conference of invited lectures under the title

Colour in Written Heritage: Multidisciplinary Research, which will be held from September 25 to 27, 2024.

at three locations in Zagreb: the Croatian State Archives, Archdiocesan Pastoral Institute, and the University of Zagreb Faculty of Graphic Arts.

The conference includes lectures on multidisciplinary research of written heritage. The intention is to show different and new approaches to studying written heritage and point to their unification.

You can find the conference program in the attachment
