Dear Members,

Apologies as the first email didn't have all the attachments, so here they are.

Also, and for your convenience, do register on-line here. The registration to the event must be done in their website and is not managed by E.C.C.O.

Here is the invitation to the workshop "Beyond restoration - The Role of Restorers and Conservators in Supporting Law Enforcement in the Combatting Illicit Trafficking of Cultural Goods" organised by the RITHMS project, which will take place in Brussels on December 4, 2024.

The E.C.C.O. committee has been directly invited to take part on this panel, but it is of fundamental importance to have other conservator-restorers joining the event.

The event will focus on the illicit trafficking of cultural property and the role of conservator-restorers, as a relevant cultural heritage professional, in supporting law enforcement in the fight against this phenomenon. This is a highly relevant topic in today's context, which is, however understudied and often where conservator-restorers are not included despite their critical role.

Please find attached the "Call for Participation" with further details, as well as the program. We invite you to involve your board members or other conservator-restorers that you may consider as fruitful contributors to the event. Please note that event is not open and has a small number of available attendees, also although the participation is free of charge the cost of accommodation and travelling needs to be covered by participants. Please do assess and register as earliest as its convenient for you.

Warmest regards on behalf of the committee,

Tânia Teixeira

Office Administrator
